GANDER CREEK ENCROACHMENT CASE.

The Gander Creek encroachment case, in which the members of the Street Committee of the City Council appeared as petitioners to have the creek kept open for drainage, came before Judge A. S. Watts and a special grand jury in the Hustings Court yesterday for settlement. The complainants alleged that the creek is being used up near the Halstead mill so as to prevent the flow of water, which creates a nuisance.

In the initial stages of the proceedings, however, an agreement was reached between H. B. Wilkins, owner of the property where the filling occurred, and the city's representatives, whereby Mr. Wilkins promised to maintain a free and unobstructed passage in the creek channel. On this understanding the proceedings were discontinued and the jury, which had not even been sworn, was discharged.

AN AUTUMN WEDDING.

A very pretty wedding was celebrated yesterday afternoon at Trinity P. E. Church, contracting parties were Miss Daisy Hunter Rosekrans Denning, daughter of Dr. H. H. Denning, of Park View, and Mr. Job S. Roby, of Beach Grove, Nansemond county, Va. At 4 o'clock the bridal party arrived at the church and entered, the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Harry Denning. Mr. A. J. Roby, the groom's brother, acted as best man. Miss Mabel Denning, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Misses Birdie Campbell, Bessie Denning, Charlotte Powell and Annie Roby acted as bridesmaids. The ushers were Otis Beaton, Charles Rond, Sidney Denning and Ira Richardson. Miss Louise Martin was flower girl. Miss Marlon Duke Williams was ring bearer. The bride was attired in white silk with organdie over it, and wore the bridal veil. She presented a lovely appearance as she stood at the altar.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Thompson, assisted by Rev. Mr. Carpenter. Mr. W. H. Denning gave her away.

At the conclusion they were driven to the Bay Lane wharf, where they took the steamer for a Northern trip. On their return they will live at Beach Grove.

A COW WITH THE RABIES.

A valuable cow belonging to Deputy Sheriff Codd, of the county, that was being bitten by a mad dog had to be killed yesterday, she showing signs of having the rabies. On Monday she began to act in a curious manner, and Mr. Codd had her fastened up. She continued to get worse and would attack everything that she could get to. Yesterday she tried to and came near succeeding in killing a pony belonging to Mr. Codd, so he concluded it would be best to shoot her, which he did.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

The following licenses to marry were granted yesterday in the County Court: W. T. Heath to Lula E. McLeod, of Huntersville; Jacob Collins, colored, to Florence Harris; Thomas Rosser, colored, to Annie Sully; Simpson Jones, colored, to Rosa Yarn; Christopher McNair, colored, to Della Hardy; James Keeling, colored, to Julia Valentine. In the Hustings Court a license was granted John Dowdy, colored, to marry Annie Rogers.

FIRE AT PHILLIPS & MAHONEY'S MILL.

Yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock fire was discovered in the roof of the engine and boiler house at Phillips & Mahoney's mill on the Union bridge. The mill hands turned out and by means of three fire pumps they succeeded in putting the fire out without turning in an alarm. The damage to the rafters and roof was slight.

STRANGER HEAVILY FINED.

Justice Bunting yesterday heard the case of R. L. Portlock, a stranger, charged with selling cigars and tobacco from a wagon without a license. He fined him $100 and costs. An appeal was taken from the magistrate's decision. The arrest was made by Special Officer George Ainsworth.
